IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Small pox has broken out at Harrodsburg, Madison county.

Miss Nannie Smith was found dead at her home at Harrodsburg.

Electricity has taken the place of mules on the street car lines in Winchester.

John Fletcher Vaughn, of Pulaski, was shot in the leg by his son while hunting.

William Rader got 21 years at Hyden, Leslie county, for the murder of his brother.

A postoffice has been established at Neaseburg, Adair county, with John A. Curry as postmaster.

G. T. Helm, chief of police of Danville, while hunting in Tennessee was kicked by a horse and three ribs were broken.

Over 800 cars were moved by the Q. & C. between Somerset and Oakdale one night last week. This was a record breaker.

John Hendrickson, wanted in Bell county for killing old man Baker two years ago, has been arrested at Hillsboro, Ill.

William W. Miller, a member of the Orphan Brigade, died at the Confederate Home. He was a native of Louisville and an old citizen.

Edward Long, of Lexington, aged 78, a member of Gen. John H. Morgan's command during the Civil War, died there of kidney trouble.

"Norman," the Palmetto Negro dwarf, was born in 1798 and therefore has the distinction of having lived in three centuries—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Mrs. Stephen Dutharge, who lives on Brush creek, Bell county, gave birth to triplets, two boys and one girl. Mother and children all doing well.

Mrs. W. M. Ashby, of Mercer county, died suddenly on board a train near Salvisa. She had tuberculosis and had started for North Carolina for her health.

Sheriff Chinn, of Mercer, captured Thomas Gabbard near Hustonville and placed him in jail at Harrodsburg. Gabbard is under indictment for grand larceny.

The senior class of Center College this year numbers 40 young men, the largest graduating class in many years. The present enrollment is also the largest in recent years.

R. D. Mallone, Road Master, travels on an average of 3,000 miles a month. This he has done for over 15 years. In that time he has been injured but once. This speaks well for the safety of travel on the Q. & C.—Somerset Republican.

Preachers usually like brevity in everybody else, but one of them got it short the other day when the fellow that was going to be dropped into eternity from the scaffold turned to his spiritual adviser and with a parting nod said: "I'll see you later."—Harrodsburg Democrat.

D. C. Clauch, of Mercer county, shot at a squirrel which was running along a rock fence. Instead of hitting the squirrel, the contents of the gun took effect in the bosom of Robert Clauch, his son, who had at that moment appeared on the scene without his father being aware of the fact. The young man wore heavy clothing and is not seriously wounded.

In a town just 10 miles from Harrodsburg, there is a merchant who does and has been doing for some years a splendid business. Three years since his wife, who has been of considerable help to him as a clerk, decided to surprise him. She began to hold out, unknown to her spouse, 50 cents and $1 at a time from some sales and deposit it for safe keeping in an old sack. A few days ago, thinking she had treasured surprise enough and to show him what she could do, she asked him to take the sack to the store and open it. To his great astonishment he found she had kept out $3,000, whereas he did not know she had taken from his cash drawer a single cent. This is not told to encourage such practices on the part of clerks who may be disposed to increase their salaries thereby, but is given as a news item.—Harrodsburg Herald.

BRODHEAD.

Rev. Jasper Livingston filled his appointment here Sunday and Sunday night.

Mrs. James Albright and son, W. H. Sowder, A. J. Pike and quite a crowd of our young people went to Freedom church last Sunday and report a nice trip.

Robert Hicks and wife have in their home a very precious treasure that they call Susie Nell and now Mr. Larkin Hicks and Rev. Pike are both called grandpa.

The Brodhead Baptist Sunday school with Bro. John Cherry as superintendent, is one that any christian could be proud of and it owes much of its prosperity to the efficient work of A. E. Albright. We have two other Sunday schools in town that are doing a good work and we hope that some of the schools can and will reach a number of boys who loaf around the depot on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Perazder Tillat paid Mrs. Hutchison a visit this week. Dr. E. J. Brown, of Stanford, spent a few days in this section, paying professional visits and hunting quail. Bogus Phillips was with us Thursday. Mrs. Katie Owens has been visiting Mrs. James Owens. She is looking well. Young Mr. Cleon Cable, who has been at home for a few days on account of sickness, has improved and has returned to Lexington and entered school again. Cleo is a nice boy and we predict a bright future for him. Mr. and Mrs. William Potts, both of whom have been very ill of typhoid fever, are said to be convalescing. Uncle Robert Paragon, one of our citizens, is moving back to his farm near Crab Orchard.

Our church, the Baptist, has just closed a 14 days' meeting, which was one of the most successful ever held here. Rev. H. R. Noel, of Stanford, is the efficient pastor and he did the preaching for the first few days. Rev. Woolford, of Lancaster, also did some splendid preaching, which was enjoyed by all who attended the services. Bros. Noel and Pike baptized 25 on Friday afternoon and on Saturday morning Bro. Noel baptized four more, leaving three others to be baptized in the future. Twelve others joined by letter and restoration, making a total of 44 additions. Bro. Woolford is an earnest, zealous preacher and we heartily recommend him to any pastor wishing help in his meeting. He endeared himself to our people and to the writer, who has learned to love him for his work's sake.

MATRIMONIAL.

Walter Jones, aged 19, and Miss Nannie Sluder, 24, will be married here to-morrow.

Miss Pearl Isaacs, of Gravel Switch, and William Smith, of Marion, were married at Danville.

B. F. Brown and Miss Mattie Mahley, of Casey, were married at Danville by Rev. T. H. Coleman.

While wedding guests were assembling at the home of his affianced, Bert McNutt, a young man at Des Moines, blew out his brains.

John Hoover, the clever chief train dispatcher of the Cumberland Valley Branch, and Miss Deas Tyler, a popular young lady of Williamsburg, eloped to Jellico and were married.

After a separation of 25 years, during most of which time they thought each other dead, John Fouch and wife met at a hotel at Elk Valley, Tenn. She had been nearly all over the world looking for him.

Should the State democratic primary idea prevail, the expense of candidates will be so great that no man who is not wealthy can afford to pay the price of getting his name on the ticket. With an eye to the future, The Democrat proposes to open books for a Political Futurity, arranged along the lines of race horse futurities. The infant can be entered, for instance, in the governor's race, before it is born, by the father or some other relative depositing a fee, say of $5. At each succeeding anniversary of the child, increase the fee $5, and by the time he is 30 years old a sufficiency will likely be accumulated, provided a good stiff starting fee is added. Of course should the infant be a girl, or turn out a horse thief, all bets will be off and the money refunded.—Cynthiana Democrat.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Craig & Hoeker.

The country store of John I. Kelly, at Henryville, Ala., was entered by unknown robbers who blew open the safe, securing about $2,500 in cash and valuable papers. They escaped and there is no clew.

Rockford, S. D., a mining camp, was demolished by flames.

SOMERSET.

Somerset petroleum has advanced to almost $1.

O. P. McMahon immersed three young ladies at the Christian church Sunday night.

A new engine of mammoth proportions, with all its oil fixtures, was shipped here this week to be taken to Cold Weather Creek for service in the oil region.

Somerset has a Chautauqua Club composed of some of the most highly cultured ladies of the community, who meet regularly at their different residences.

There are three first-class newspapers published here, one daily and two weekly, each of which is deservedly popular and receives a goodly share of patronage.

We have realized in the past few days that "into each life some rain must fall" as we have had almost a continuous downpour with a mixture of the beautiful for several hours.

A new bakery and confectionery will soon be in operation on Main street, where the genial proprietor will be ready to dispense a fine quality of the "staff of life" to all who will favor him with a call.

There are two banks here doing a flourishing business. The First National bank has a deposit of $400,000. The Farmers Bank is also prosperous. There seems to be plenty of money in circulation, the monthly pay roll being $30,000.

The fair grounds are undergoing a number of improvements, one of which is a lakelet in the center of the grounds with an island, which is to be covered with tropical plants, all to be watered by a fountain supplied with crystal waters from the reservoir hard by.

Thanksgiving services were held in the M. E. church, in which all the ministers of the city took part. O. P. McMahon, delivering the address. The music for the occasion was well selected and well rendered by vocalists from each church and a beautiful solo, "Face to Face," was rendered by Mr. Edison.

The city administration, which seems to be wide awake to the interests of the city, is busily employed in perfecting material improvements in the way of streets, concrete walks, etc. The electric plant will be ready for operation in the near future, some trivial defect in the foundation causing the delay.

Sam Higgins, formerly a Lincoln county man, seems to have struck it lucky. He has disposed of 14 acres of land to the Standard Oil Co., furnishing accommodation for half a mile of pipe line to the east and is constantly selling building lots and erecting new residences. He has yet 200 acres open for additional improvements in this growing little city.

The Q. & C. has a large round house near the depot, with the probability of the Ludlow plant being removed here. The net work of railroad switches, stretching for miles, is a matter of wonder and surprise, especially to the uninitiated. With all these advantages, with many others yet untold, who can conjecture the future that awaits the sunny southland, Somerset.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. For sale by Craig & Hoeker, Stanford.

Charles F. Kelley, former Speaker of the House of Delegates to St. Louis, was arrested in Philadelphia just as he stepped off a train from New York, was locked up to await the arrival of officers from Missouri. Kelley is accused of having distributed the $47,000 boodle fund in connection with municipal legislation for street railway franchises.

Minister Hunter declares that his son was goaded into killing Fitzgerald, but he forgets the circumstance that Mr. Fitzgerald was looking the other way when the shot hit him.—Lexington Democrat.

In Brooklyn a trained nurse who prophesied that it would be a girl has been refused payment for her two months of service by the disappointed mother of a "bouncing boy."

The new college building at Morehead was dedicated, Prof. Burriss Jenkins, of Lexington, delivering the principal address. Gov. Beckham also took part in the exercises.

LANCASTER.

Hog killing is now in vogue. C. A. Robinson bought a bunch of shoats at 50.

The farmers are somewhat backward with their fall work.

The Baptist women realized $14 by their recent exchange.

A Negro boy has been tried for idleness at this term of circuit court.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Saturday afternoon with Mrs. J. West. Mr. Joshua N. Dunn and family of Bryantville, leave to-day for New Mexico.

Eld. A. R. Moore will hold his Wednesday evening prayer meeting in Miss Sallie Tillett's store room.

Next Sunday will be "rally day" for the Christian Sunday School and an excellent program will be rendered.

Mr. Aldridge and family, of Marksbury, will occupy the Hughes house on Richmond street for the ensuing year.

Mr. Guy Davidson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Davidson, gave a dining to a number of the junior set. Rev. Myad delivered an interesting lecture Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church on "Persia and its people."

Rev. Young, pastor of the New Hope church of Upper Garrard, delivered an address Friday at the teachers' association.

Carterville, a village of Upper Garrard, has a new physician, Dr. Redwine, who removed there from Whitesburg.

The turnips were so fine and plentiful in Lower Garrard that they have been selling at the low price of 7c per bushel.

The "Billie West Minstrels," a home troupe, are booked for an entertainment at Kirksville Dec. 6 and here Dec. 13.

It is rumored both Gov. Bradley's family and Gen. Collier's will remove from here to Louisville within the next few weeks.

Miss Katharine Eggeston, a noted and gifted reader, will give an entertainment in this city on Dec. 11, at the court house.

W. K. Shugars has returned from a prospecting trip and has arranged to open a drug store at Bradfordsville the first of the year.

A much needed new crossing is being laid on Danville street and some others will be constructed in other sections of the town.

Miss Ella Humber, of West Garrard, and Charles Ross, of Boone's creek, were united in marriage, Eld. A. R. Moore officiating.

The Ladies' Aid Society will open an exchange next Saturday in the post office and continue it every Saturday through December.

The C. W. B. M. Auxiliary will hold an open session Tuesday at 2 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. A. R. Moore, and an interesting program will be rendered.

Miss Lily Wallace, of Memphis, is the guest of Mrs. A. R. Moore. Samuel Joseph, of Cincinnati, has been with his brother, Jacob Joseph. Mr. Wallace Wharton, of Keene, was the guest of Miss Mattie Thompson. Miss Frances Morrie, of Chattanooga, is visiting the family of Gen. O. R. Collier. Mr. Charles Deeman and wife, of Nicholasville, have been visiting Mrs. Alex West. Miss Cotton, of Boyle, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Lena Rigney. Mrs. W. K. Shugars is at home again after a visit to McKinney. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Price have returned from a visit to Mrs. George Balfow, of Richmond. Miss Mabel Drew, of Portsmouth, O., is visiting Miss Mary Gill. Mrs. C. D. Powell has returned from a Mrs. visit to Mrs. Short, of Richmond. Misses Mary Welser and Elizabeth Browne, of Lexington, have been visiting in this vicinity. Miss Mary Smiley, of Lexington, has been the guest of Miss Mamie Ballard. Miss Mattie Beazley, of Crab Orchard, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Beazley.

She doesn't drive a stub-tailed horse, Nor cut all fashion's capers; Nor have her photograph and name Put in the Sunday papers. She doesn't pet a pug-nosed pup, Nor flirt with some girl's brother; No, she's a queen among them all—The girl who helps her mother.

Steps have been taken by Venezuela to satisfy the foreign claims against the government by a unification of all outstanding government guaranteed loans upon a basis of security greater than hitherto offered.

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING,

of Danville, is a candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Mercer, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 13th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JOHN S. WISE, the degenerate son of a noble sire, Gov. Henry A. Wise, is stirring up strife in Virginia. He has issued an unlimited number of printed suit forms and had them distributed broadcast throughout Virginia, so that each Negro who was denied registration under the suffrage clause may fill in as many as may be necessary and file them by his attorney in the nearest circuit court of the United States for that particular district of Virginia, bringing suit for $5,000 damage against every individual member of the constitutional convention, the governor, the three members of the registration board, which refused to register him and the three judges at plaintiff's voting precinct. Mr. Wise alleges conspiracy on the part of the members of the constitutional convention and other defendants to deprive plaintiffs of the right to vote. He has doubtless fooled the Negroes into raising a big fee for him.

A VERY sensible girl has been located at Patterson, N. J. She is 19 and pretty and had made all arrangements for a joyous wedding, but when the guests were assembled and the minister in reading of the expectant groom did not make his appearance. The prospective bride did not weep or bewail her fate. She invited the guests to a feast and proved the gayest of the crowd. At the head of the table was placed the effigy of a man stuffed with straw and "all went merry as a marriage bell." It was the jolliest of marriage feasts.

HON. VINCENT BORRINO is a pretty big man in the mountains and is one of the biggest republicans in the State, but he can not disobey the city laws of Pineville. For driving rapidly over the Cumberland river bridge in that city's limits, a fine of $10 will be imposed on him when he comes back for trial. The Congressman was trying to catch a train.

In his report, Secretary of the Navy Moody calls attention to the lack of officers for the navy. He says that the case will become desperate unless provision for an increase of midshipmen is made before the war vessels in course of construction are completed. All war vessels now being built are from four to 30 months behind contract time.

TEN surviving Confederates of a Virginia cavalry company have started a fund for the erection of a monument in Richmond, Va., to Gen. U. S. Grant. Sixteen members of the company survived the war, and the fund begins with $16.

C. L. CROW, of the Walnut Flat section, has rented the Redd property at Crab Orchard and will move to it Jan. 1. He will open a training stable at the fair grounds.

MRS. MARY BRONAUUGH was here from Crab Orchard Saturday. "I want the INTERIOR JOURNAL wherever I go," she said to us as she paid for the paper to Feb. 1, 1903.

MISS ELLA MAY SAUNDERS' delightful class at Corbin gave a delightful entertainment there a few nights since. The weather was bad but a good crowd witnessed the clever performance.

THE handsome home which Messrs. A. T. and J. R. Nunnally have nearly completed for their parents to spend their declining years in, speaks volumes of praise for those clever gentlemen.

THE C. W. H. M. ladies of the State Auxiliary, are cordially invited to meet Mrs. Ida Withers Harrison, of Lexington, at the home of Miss Ann Hartwell Shanks next Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5.

MISS ALICE DRYE, of Lebanon, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Shaw in the Highlands. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Withers have returned from Paris, where they spent Thanksgiving with friends - Louisville Times.

MISS LUCILLE COOPER is having a gay time in Nashville, where she is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. J. Lyles. Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Miss Virginia Pierce have both entertained her homely in her honor and Mrs. Lyles will do likewise this week.

LOCALS.

WEDDING presents at Mueller's.

BANK REPORTS this issue. Read them.

FOR SALE.—Six 250 pound hogs. Fat. Henry Logan, Stanford.

JAN. 9.—Gov. Beckham has set Jan. 9 as the date for James Hocker to hang.

WE have brightened our cloak stock with some swell garments. Severance & Sons.

WE pay special attention to children's shoes. See us before buying. Severance & Sons.

JUDGE LEWIS, of Rockcastle, tried a fellow for drunkenness the other day over the telephone. The verdict was $6 and costs.

DEAD.—C. C. Colmsonell, for many years express agent on the Kentucky Central with headquarters here, died at Lakeland last week. He lived in Louisville prior to his mental trouble.

WORK on the bank building at Crab Orchard is progressing rapidly now, since Mr. Johnson, the expert Danville brickmason, took charge. He will be able to turn it over to the carpenters this week.

ING CREEPY.—Squire J. A. Dudder showed us Saturday a bunch of coltry of his own raising which measured 34 feet tall and seven inches in circumference at the root. It was the finest we ever saw.

ATTENTION.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have an exchange at Severance & Sons' old store room on Dec. 23 and 24, and all the members of the church are requested to contribute to same. Help a good cause.

THE way the Danville correspondents are working the daily papers is a caution. Some of the items they send in are so old that a good many people have forgotten them. "If new and true; not otherwise" is certainly not the Danville quill drivers' motto.

NEWS comes from Lancaster that James I. Hamilton has announced for Judge M. C. Sautley and wants to wager $1,000 that our townsman will be nominated for circuit judge. As "Jim" goes, so goes Garrard. Judge Sautley's chances grow brighter daily.

GOOD RECORD.—Mr. Samuel Hardin, of Crab Orchard, one of the oldest men in the county, paid for the INTERIOR JOURNAL Saturday for the 32nd time. His time expired yesterday but he never waits until the last day. In fact in the 31 years he has been taking this paper he has never been behind a day with his subscription. Would there were more men like this splendid old citizen.

DAUGHTERTY.—James Daughterty died at his home Thursday evening, aged 68. He had been in feeble health for several years. A wife and 10 living children survive the clever man. The funeral took place in the Campbell burying ground, near Turnersville, Friday afternoon after services by Rev. Mason. Mr. Daughterty was a devout Baptist and an honest, upright man. He was coroner of this county for a decade or more.

THE precinct conventions to be held at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon should be participated in by every democrat in this, the 13th judicial district. Let the democrats of this county be on hand at their voting places and in no uncertain tones make known their preference for circuit judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. Of course Lincoln will go for her favored one, Judge M. C. Sautley and Mr. J. S. Owseley, Jr., but let's let the outside world see how warm we are for these distinguished countymen of ours by every democrat taking part in the conventions.

CHRISTMAS presents at Mueller's.

LOST.—A $10 bill. Liberal reward.

PLENTY of binder twine. Higgins & McKinney.

SEE W. R. Mueller's "ad" on our second page.

PLACE your order at once for holiday pictures at Miss Sacray's.

FARMERS.—Please return our sacks, or call and settle for them. J. H. Baughman & Co.

A MAIL pouch containing about $23,000 in checks and drafts was lost between Junction City and Danville.

STORE ROOM and ware-house full of cheap, medium and fine furniture. Prices to suit all. J. L. Beasley & Co.

STORE-ROOM at Hustonville for rent. Splendid stand for gent's' furnisher or furniture and undertaking. James Frye, Hustonville, Ky.

FOR SALE.—Stock of merchandise. Best location for country store in Kentucky. 10 acres land and all improvements. Drummer, Junction City, Ky. 4t.

FINED.—In Judge Carson's court yesterday Will Baughman, colored, was fined $19 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Henry Francis, white, for same offense, was fined $5.

QUARTERLY COURT was in session yesterday with Judge Bailey presiding. There was nothing done to amount to anything, only a few judgments for debts etc being passed upon.

ALL members of the Christian church of Crab Orchard are earnestly requested to be at the church next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of calling a pastor for the next year.

CARD OF THANKS.—I desire through your columns to sincerely thank all who were so kind to me throughout my wife's sickness. I shall forever love and cherish those deeds of kindness and hope that some day I may be able to at least partly repay them. R. D. Padgett, Waynesburg.

MRS. IDA WITHERS HARRISON, State president of the Kentucky C. W. B. M., will deliver on address on "Woman's Debt to Missions" next Sunday evening in the Christian church at 7 o'clock. All who are interested in missions are most cordially invited to attend the services.

THE postal clerks on the K. C. need a "jerk" up" and if they don't handle our papers with more care we will see that they get it. Mr. William Royston writes from Point Leavell that Tuesday's paper did not reach there until Friday and that Friday's I. J. had not come up to Saturday night.

MISS MINNIE ECKHARTS, teacher of the McKinney public school, writes that the closing exercises of her school will occur at 2 P. M., Thursday next and the public generally is cordially invited to be present. The Richards brothers will furnish music for the occasion, which promises to be an enjoyable one.

FIRE NARROWLY AVERTED.—While the family of Mr. A. W. Carpenter was at supper the other night a cat overturned a lamp in an adjoining room, setting fire to the table scarf the lamp was sitting on. The blaze had reached considerable dimensions when the family arrived but fortunately it was extinguished before much damage was done.

FROHMAN.—J. L. Frohman, the former proprietor of the Globe, Danville, was found dead in a bath tub at his home in Chicago. A Chicago dispatch says: "It is the belief that he had prepared for his bath and in attempting to step into the tub, his feet slipped from under him and he fell. In falling he struck the back of his neck upon the side of the tub and dislocated the axis. With the dislocation of neck came complete paralysis of the body, and therefore there was no sign of a struggle, and death came almost immediately."

LIBERTY.—About the usual crowd attended "big" court at Liberty yesterday and business generally was good. There were no visiting attorneys present and the local Blackstones were feeling good over their prospects for business. The docket is light this term and court will not last over a week. George E. Stone has another boy—J. Boyle Stone. Pat Napier fell from a loaded wagon and broke several ribs. Winice Wilkinson and E. H. Klidd are each building handsome storehouses. H. W. Phillips will build two store-rooms soon. James Giboney and Dink Phillips have opened a furniture store on one side of Mr. Phillips' store. G. R. Wilkinson and Jud Phillips are agents for Ballard's famous Obelisk flour. Will Stone has bought Pat Whipp's interest in Whipp Bros' store. Dr. James Ross died of blood poisoning Sunday night. G. W. King has the back line again and everybody is glad of it. He has moved to Liberty. The Commercial Bank has $50,000 deposits and $70,000 loans. Oscar Lanham and Miss Annie Short were married by Judge Raines Sunday. The Maccabee supper was a success. I. C. Brown sold to B. G. Fox a pair of gray mare mules for $300.

Silver Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gover.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gover was open on Nov. 24 to a few friends and relatives who were invited to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the marriage of this good couple. On account of the inclement weather many were prevented from coming who otherwise would have been present. Those who were denied that pleasure sent presents, expressive of love and esteem. An elegant dinner was beautifully served. The table and dining room were decorated with pink chrysanthemums and lighted in harmony with the decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Gover received many pretty and valuable presents and the sincere wishes of all that they may live to celebrate their golden wedding. About 60 ladies and gentlemen were present and the occasion will linger long and pleasantly in their memories.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. B. J. Pinkerton baptized Miss Rebecca Mullins, of Ottenheim, at the Christian church Saturday afternoon. Miss Mullins professed religion while Eld. Pinkerton was holding a meeting at Hall's Gap church.

An Ohio minister has called the young people of his congregation to task for disturbing the worship of the church with the noise of their osculations. It is evident that the pastor holds that the command to love one another does not extend to the exchange of microbes in the sanctuary. - Louisville Times.

A Word To You.

I desire to thank my good patrons who have given me a liberal share of their work and I ask a continuance of same. My shop is again rebuilt and I am ready and willing to wait on all who want shoeing or other kinds of blacksmithing done. Wagon and buggy building and repairing done promptly and at reasonable prices.

WALTER FIELDS, Turnersville, Ky.

FOR SALE.

750 shocks of fodder, 250 bales of shredded fodder, 10 stacks of millet and 1 straw rick. Have an excellent place to feed and want about 15 or 20 cattle. Will feed the above at a bargain early in the winter.

Homely Men.

There was a voting contest in Chatham, N. Y. The effort was not to discover a prize baby or the wisest girl, but to chase to his lair the homeli-est man.

Charles H. Huribert won by 30 votes.

He brooded over it until he became temporarily insane, and made an attack on his father, wounding the old man seriously.

No man likes to feel that he resembles a sinned cat, or that his personal appearance is so different from that of his fellows as to make him a shaming mark.

But personal beauty is a feminine characteristic. It means much in a woman and to a man it is almost a drawback.

If he is extraordinarily good-looking,

he is often a vain fool. Handsome features and brains are seldom given to one man.

Go through the list of America's bigbrained men who have done things in the field of education, finance and commerce

You will find men like Hadley, of Yale, Tom Reed, the ex-speaker, who now garners thousands every year as a

New York lawyer; Roosevelt, President of the United States, who would not take a prize at a beauty show if he ran 100 yards—and thousands more—but no pretty men.

The Adonislike fellows seldom go beyond the scented-note, matinee-idol stage.

The man who is equipped with a plain face should study the pictures of the great men of the world and find new courage.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough.

Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely

as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.
